

CP-16 Supervision & Program Administration I

$330

Ethics in the Helping Professions 14 hours

Objectives: Gain an understanding of the ethical and legal implications of providing counseling services. Learn how to apply ethical standards to the practice of the helping professions.

Text: Ethics in Psychotherapy and Counseling, 3rd ed. by Kenneth S. Pope & Melba J. T. Vasquez ISBN-10: 0787994006

Clinical Supervision 20 hours

Objectives: To better prepare the new supervisor as they first encounter the challenges of supervising a clinical staff. To assist the veteran, as well as the new, supervisor better appreciate the complexity of supervision to increase their effectiveness and satisfaction in that role.

Text: Clinical Supervision in the Helping Professions: A Practical Guide by Raymond Haynes, et. al. ISBN-10: 0534563139

Stress Among Helping Professionals 14 hours

Objectives: Explores the challenges helping professionals face as they deal with stress in their workplace. Offers strategies that, if implemented, can begin to reduce the impact that stress has.

Text: Resilient Practitioner: Burnout Prevention & Self-Care Strategies for Counselors, Therapists Teachers & Health Professionals by Thomas M. Skovholt ISBN-10: 020530611X

Using Placement Criteria 20 hours

Objective: Examines the applications and implications for the appropriated placement of substance abusing clients. Enables the counselor to better understand how placement criteria impacts their work with clients and how to more effectively assist clients in receiving the most appropriate level of care.

Text: Patient Placement Criteria for the Treatment of Substance-Related Disorder (PPC-2) 2nd ed. ISBN-10: 1880425068

Dealing w/ Managed Care 14 hours

Objectives: Explores the assessment, diagnostic and treatment implications inherent in the managed care health care environment. Enables the therapist to better cope with and provide meaningful, quality services to clients under managed care.

Text: Managed Mental Health Care: Major Diagnostic and Treatment Approaches by S. Richard Sauber ISBN-10: 0876308124

Operating a Private Practice 14 hours

Objectives: Examines the process of developing an effective and profitable private counseling practice. Prepares the therapist who is considering opening or is currently operating a private practice to do so with careful consideration of the ethical, professional and client service issues.

Text: Building Your Ideal Private Practice: A Guide For Therapists and Other Healing Professionals by Lynn Grodzki ISBN-10: 0393703312

Treatment Planning w/ Substance Abusers 12 hours

Objectives: Provides the therapist with greater understanding about how to gain greater compliance for clients receiving treatment for alcoholism. Prepares the therapist with knowledge of techniques and strategies to increase client compliance with services.

Text: Improving Compliance with Alcoholism Treatment by Kathleen Carroll ISBN-10: 0788184717