

CP-26 Essentials of Addictions Counseling III

$330

Compulsive Gambling

14 hours

Objectives: Studies the challenges of counseling the pathological gambler examining its similarities and differences with alcoholism. Better prepares the counselor in providing treatment for the client who has a compulsive gambling problem.

Texts: Releasing Guilt about Gambling by Valerie C. Lorenz, Ph.D. ISBN-10: 0894865234

Understanding Compulsive Gambling by Henry R. Lesieur, Ph.D. ISBN-13: 9780894863882

When Someone You Love Gambles by Mary Heineman, M.S.W., C.A.C. ISBN-10: 0894865358

Alcoholism and Pathological Gambling: Similarities and Differences by Arthur Herscovitch ISBN-10: 1556911467

The Troubled Employee

20 hours

Objectives: Explores the identification, assessment and intervention with employees who have mental health, addiction and other life problems Better prepares the counselor to effectively help the employee who is experiencing job performance problems.

Text: Workplace Intervention: The Bottom Line on Helping Addicted Employees Become Productive Again by James Fearing ISBN-10: 156838520X

Family Intervention

12 hours

Objectives: Explores the impact of substance abuse on the family. Examines strategies and the implications of training for and following through with a family intervention.

Text: Training Families to Do a Successful Intervention by Alexandra Robbin, et. al. ISBN-10: 1562461168

Using Placement Criteria

20 hours

Objective: Examines the applications and implications for the appropriated placement of substance abusing clients. Enables the counselor to better understand how placement criteria impacts their work with clients and how to more effectively assist clients in receiving the most appropriate level of care.

Text: Patient Placement Criteria for the Treatment of Substance-Related Disorder (PPC-2) 2nd ed. ISBN-10: 1880425068

Motivational Interviewing

12 hours

Objectives: Identifies strategies that develop a counseling relationship that motivated the client to change. Prepares clients to utilize their skills as they create an environment that fosters client change.

Text: Motivational Interviewing: Preparing People for Change by William K. Miller & Stephen Rollnick ISBN-10: 1572305630

Biological & Cultural Aspects of Addiction

12 hours

Objectives: Explores how physiological and cultural factors are involved in substance use and addiction. Broadens the therapist's view of the factors that contribute to addiction so they can best utilize their skills to address the client's needs.

Text: The Selfish Brain by Robert L. Dupont, M.D. ISBN-10: 1568383630

From Addiction to Recovery

12 hours

Objectives: Examines how the addicted client moves from the culture of addiction to one of recovery. Prepares the therapist to be alert to the transition that client's undergo as they move from an addictive to a drug free lifestyle.

Text: Pathways from the Culture of Addiction to the Culture of Recovery by William L. White, M.A. ISBN-10: 1568381239